Three car crash in Pembroke leaves local women dead

Pembroke, NH

01/04/11 –

The Pembroke Police Department is investigating a 3 car, fatal motor vehicle collision that the occurred on Rte #3 near the Concord/Pembroke town line last evening at 6:30 pm. Roula Lellios, 79, of Perley Avenue in Pembroke was pronounced dead at the scene. Lellios was the sole occupant of her car, a white 2004 Hyundai sedan.

A preliminary investigation indicated Lellios was traveling south bound in the north bound lane of Route #3 when she struck a 2004 silver VW Bug, head-on. It was driven by Diane Williams, 58, of Concord. There were no passengers in William's car. Williams was taken to the Concord Hospital with serious injuries. She was later transferred to the Dartmouth Hitchcock Hospital in Lebanon. A third vehicle, a 2002 Green Subaru, driven by Brad Prescott, 23, of Allenstown struck the William's vehicle. Prescott was not injured. His two passengers, Svetlana Mahlanti, 21 of Derry, and Margaitia Vigneau, 19 of Allenstown, were transported to the Concord Hospital with minor injuries.

Rte #3 was closed from Rte #106 to Airport Road in Concord for 4 hours. The Pembroke Police was assisted by the NH State Police Technical Accident Reconstruction (T.A.R.) team, the Concord Police Department and the Pembroke Fire Department.
