PRESS RELEASE

Pembroke – NH

The Pembroke Police are investigating a report of a person who impersonated a Police Officer on July 15, 2009 at 1:30 am. A man dressed as a police officer, driving what appeared to be a white older model vehicle with a blue light, activated the light and stopped a vehicle operated by a woman. The man got out of the vehicle, made contact with the woman and at some point asked her to step from the vehicle. The woman did as asked and the man assaulted her. During the initial investigation, it is believed that the man was not a police officer and that the vehicle was not a police cruiser.
