

PRESS RELEASE

Pembroke – NH

The Pembroke Police along with the assistance of the Hooksett and Allenstown Police Departments arrested a Manchester man, Rodney Williams, on Felony gun charges. Police took a report of a man who had pointed a gun at a resident in Pembroke during a disrupted burglary attempt. After fleeing the area, Allenstown Police stopped the vehicle with the assistance of Hooksett Police who then arrested Williams for a Felony weapons charge. The Pembroke Police continued their investigation, which resulted in charging Williams with Criminal Threatening with a firearm and Attempted Burglary. Williams is being held at the Merrimack County Jail on $100,000.00 Cash Bail set by the Hooksett District Court.
