OTHER BUSINESS and CORRESPONDENCE:

Other Business -

John Stone has been cleaning up the trash that is being left by the water at the Route 3 property in Concord. He would like to bring his ATV in there to get the trash out. Although the Board does appreciate Mr. Stone cleaning up the area, they do not want ATVs or 4 Wheelers on the property. A sign will be posted on the property.

With NHDES reporting that 85% of the state is experiencing abnormally dry to severe drought conditions. As a proactive measure, the Board of Commissioners will request that residents try to conserve water by voluntarily reducing water usage. Notices will be posted in Pembroke & Allenstown, along with notices in the Hooksett Banner and Concord Monitor. The Pembroke & Allenstown Fire Departments will be asked to stop using the hydrants for training.

The Board reviewed correspondence.

Motion by Andy Boisvert and seconded by Chris Culberson to adjourn at 7:08 pm.
